Just A Matter Of Time

Kayak

Making your way with no more delay
Attracted by the gold
Storming ahead and leave them for dead
All for one, and none for all

Don't just call it a day
Throwing chances away
What can I do, what can I say
Easy does it) don't you know that

It's just a matter of time
Just enough to step out of line, oh no
It's just a matter of years
Before oceans turn into tears, yeah
Could be a matter of days
Until love is changing its ways, oh no
Just a matter of time
For a fool to turn to crime

Targets are set, you're caught in a net
That will leave you scarred for life
Making ammends, forget common sense
By the time you have arrived

Don't just call it a day
Throwing chances away
What can I do, what can I say
(Easy does it) don't you know that

It's just a matter of time
Just enough to step out of line, oh no
It's just a matter of years
Before oceans turn into tears, yeah
Could be a matter of days
Until love is changing its ways, oh no
Just a matter of time
For a fool to turn to crime

Straight to the heart
That's where you'd like your words to go
If I were you, I'd be
Holding my own, holding my own

It's just a matter of time... etc
