

Again

KayCyy

Top of the morning

Top of the morning yeah
I like to wake up next to you baby
Look at your features yeah yeah
And none of these girls standing next to you
You know that I am better, and I am laying with you
I don't got time to be playing with you
If your wings giving in, I am your parachute
Give you all the respect, won't embarrass you
Everyday make you feel brand new
All them bitches I ran through can never be you
Think about the day I bagged you
I am so happy that I ran into you

She don't want no hug right now
And I ain't tryna be that guy that threw it
She done been trough much before
And I ain't tryna be the gay that put her through it
Again, again, talk about again
Again, talk about again
Again, won't put you through it, I can't do it

Ahhh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
And I only need you
You are all I need
Again

Love me as your homie first, and first through friends
Cause all them people that you've been with don't want you to win
You know you got me whenever, girl I'll be your hand
The energy's kept, it don't matter if I am your man
We can find a way back home together
We can build a better platform together

She don't want no hug right now
And I ain't tryna be that guy that threw it
She done been trough much before
And I ain't tryna be the gay that put her through it
Again, again, talk about again
Again, talk about again
Again, won't put you through it, I can't do it

Ahhh, oh, oh, oh, oh, oh
And I only need you
You are all I need
Again
