

FENCES

KayCyy

Don't you let it fade out
Cause I done did too much to let it go down
And I don't care if it ain't fair now
Better pick up where you left that, put your leg down
They just wanna see us sin, they just wanna see us sin
I've been moving solo, I don't even trust my friends
And when I told you do the same, we take it to offense
You just need some time alone, it's time to build a fence

I hope you understand, you my only one, you know you are my all in hand
Let a nigga try you, bet I'm cutting of they head
I never wait this long for a girl, you are a gem
Girl you are a 10, girl you like that flame?
Never light it up for anyone except me
Lie to everyone and anyone except me
Tell me everything and I'ma handle like the G
I'll tell you anything cause I know that we gon go through it
Tryna get you ready, making sure that you are focused
Cause I know my patience is strong enough
Kept it real from the very jump
I'm loyal to you girl you know it's soft
Let's keep it going, yeah forever love
Not forever lies

Don't you let it fade out
Cause I done did too much to let it go down
And I don't care if it ain't fair now
Better pick up where you left that, put your leg down
They just wanna see us sin, they just wanna see us sin
I've been moving solo, I don't even trust my friends
And when I told you do the same, we take it to offense
You just need some time alone, it's time to build a fence

Yeah, it's time to build a fence
I've been moving up, and I've been losing all my friends
Lately it's been hard to recognize who is really in That's why I am looking at her, tyrna see us really in
I lost a lot of friends
And I don't wanna lose you, never tell us we gon end
That's why I've been stressing bout you staying in the ends
And I don't even trust all these girls you call your friends
Maybe just 1 tho, that's the [?] are for Oh, time for
Baby can make some time for it

Don't you let it fade out
Cause I done did too much to let it go down
And I don't care if it ain't fair now
Better pick up where you left that, put your leg down
They just wanna see us sin, they just wanna see us sin
I've been moving solo, I don't even trust my friends
And when I told you do the same, we take it to offense
You just need some time alone, it's time to build a fence

It's time to build a fence
Lately I've been moving solo, ohh, yeah
Lately I've been moving solo, ohh, yeah

I just need my baby, ohh, yeah
I just need my
I just need it right now, ohh
