KayCyy

That's it right there

Yeah, I thought that you were different yeah I thought
You ain't have to say cause I saw
I tried my hardest for your heart, but you did everything to brush me off ye ah

Now I am on, you dead right
Tell all your friends that you knew me
Won't treat you the same you a groupie
I gave you a chance but you blew me
These diamonds on me that's the new me
I bet these bitches wanna do me
I ball on these niggas like Rooney
Couples K just to book me, yeah yeah
For all the clubs that overlooked me, for all the clubs that overlooked us
We pull up like [?], we don't have trust
We now at the club you can hang with us
You gotta promise we can bang it out
In our own city, yeah they hate on us
Ever since Prince no one made it out
Had to do it find a different route
Had to make you find a different out
Me [?] start this shit
Dropping hit's like back to back to back on the same shit as Drake and shit
I took a loss once, but ever since I won the championship it don't know what the fuck that is
Your favorite rapper he afraid of this
Since 97 they don't make em like me anymore
I've been grinding hard just tryna get me a score
When I started, they ain't never show me support
Back on [?] all they did was laugh
I ain't never stopped, I just kept on recording
I knew my potential, knew I was important
All these bitches used to hate on me, but looking now all these bitches is g oing
I knew I was good from the start
I knew I was good from the start
But when I started smoking loud, oh God-damn I started the spark
That's it right there

Yeah, I thought that you were different yeah I thought
You ain't have to say cause I saw
I tried my hardest for your heart, but you did everything to brush me off ye
ah

Now I am on you recognize, tell all your friends that you knew the guy
I am on the same shit, just getting high
But this high got a different price
Me and you we can never see eye to eye
Yeah, you can never get a hi hi
You had your change but you flew by Yeah, I'm too good for you
That's it right there
I'm too good for you
Oh, I'm too good for you
I'm too good
