

It's been a long time without you girl, and I just can't do it
Living alone in a lonely world is what I am doing
Acting like I don't care
I'm glad you're not here
Lying to myself
That I'm better off without you baby

My papa told me it's a man's world, that's how he raised us
Don't fall in love with these hoes, most the time they just wanna be famous
Just a youngin trying to listen in, tryna pay attention I don't never say no n
But then you came around and changed that Beautiful, just like a Maybach
I ain't gonna lie, at first I just wanted to hit that Addicted to it now I need that Personality I never found that
All these girls the same, that's what I thought back
Then you came around and showed me different
Snap back to me and now you fitted for me
Solo nigga, now I got a homie

But I know that we fight a lot, but it's alright
And all [?] better for us through the night
Making love feels better it's needed
Gave it to you, ah baby you need it
Another planet where we switching positions
Spark it up baby we on a mission
Nah, nah, nah, nah, ohhh

It's been a long time without you girl, and I just can't do it
Living alone in a lonely world is what I am doing
Acting like I don't care
I'm glad you're not here
Lying to myself
That I'm better off without you baby

It's a man's world, but it ain't shit when you ain't here
It's a cold world, the weather's better when you're here
Love is like a plane that we do not know how to steer
But if we fly together girl then we gon persevere
It's a man's world, but it ain't shit when you ain't here
It's a cold world, the weather's better when you're here
Love is like a plane that we do not know how to steer

By myself I am too blunt, how the fuck can we not see clear
If it's the both of us, it's me and you against the world if it ain't got no room for us
All we need is the trust, working late nights I do it for us
If I lost the will, would you go back to the bus
If we had no choice, would you go back to the trap
Do it all again and put it all on the map
Would you do it for me shawty promise me that Would I take a bullet for you, I got your back
Would I stick around and love like you were my last
So selfish, nobody else can get a chance
That's the reason that I am moving too fast

Yeah look, I know that we fight a lot, but it's alright
And all [?] better for us through the night
Making love feels better it's needed
Gave it to you, ah baby you need it
Another planet where we switching positions
Spark it up baby we on a mission
Ohh, nah, nah, nah, nah

It's a cold world, the weather's better when you're here
Love is like a plane that we do not know how to steer
But if we fly together girl then we gon persevere
As long as you here
As long as I'm here
As long as you here, baby as long as I'm here than we gon persevere
As long as you here
As long as I'm here, yeah
By myself I am too blunt, by yourself it's too blunt
How the fuck can we not see clear
