

Looking For Somebody

KayCyy

Yeah, I was looking for someone
I was looking for somebody tonight
I was hoping, I was searching

I was hoping, I was hoping it's you
Made some racks you know I split it in 2
She is a daredevil, I gave her something to lose
I made a star out of someone tonight
Small times, I don't care about the hype
But she was looking for somebody tonight
3rd dimension baby, I'm on my high
While I, you exactly everything that I saw Expensive dreams, I made the truth bout the [?]
You stare at me, you stare when you get awards
But she was looking for somebody tonight
Stay a while, I'll drop your wrist in some ice
New body on you, you know that you brown
You were looking baby, till what you found

Heard you was looking
