Yeah, [?]
I get [?]
Shawty, I would never embarrass you
How could I ever?
How could I ever come down?

Let's go, crunch time on the west side
New apartment when you lease
That's 3000 every month, but I swear I am only there once a week
Good to have you on a leash
Good to have you on breeze
Good to have you on peace
I turn them doubters to believers
I turned the project to the hills now
Nation is proud, make me they hero
Said I wouldn't achieve it, but look at this shit, I became an overachiever
Welcome, yes you at the right place
Messed up, yes you get everything
Every time I'ma have her in the right space
Baby came to me and she in the right place
You won't see no worries when you looking at my face
Keeping it a 100, keeping it a 1000, keeping it a million, keeping it a billion with you
Is it cool to make a million with you?
Can we go and make a billion or 2?
I turned the project to the hills now
I turned the project to the hills now
God's promise, I can't fear now
I trust the process, don't refuse now
