

Needed For Something

KayCyy

I guess I'm needed for something
I guess I'm needed for something
I guess I'm needed for something
I guess they need me for something
I guess they need me for something
I guess they need me

Thank God we made it from nothing
Thank God
Uh, look how we standing for something
Like stay up
I guess I, I know I'm needed for something
Something that they must say it's bigger than me
Bigger than who? Come walk in my shoes, ah
Walkin' up, I know they see the God in me
All is possible it don't matter if it's out of my reach
I fought my demons face to face and then I drowned them in bleach
I know some niggas fightin' cases that they probably won't beat
Seeing the world, I told my niggas get they pass for some link
The world bigger than the city we was raised in
I'm thankful 'cause my lyrics send me places
Same routine and they ready for some changes

I guess I'm needed for something
They need me for something, oh, they need me for something
Yeah, maybe two different somethings
Two different somethings
They start to thank for me nothing
When they see I'm coming, oh, oh, oh
I guess I'm needed for something
I know I'm needed for something
Ooh, oh
