

No Issue

KayCyy

Never lose my [?], never lose my mind
Stay up on this mission yeah, stay up on my grind
Once I get a hit off it's gon always multiply
And I am never selfish, split the profit with my guys
All them hating bitches, I was hating she's lying Noticed [?] on her Insta every time
We don't trust no new nigga's, they switch up every time
Rather mind my business, do my dirt, and do my own crime

I can't wait to say the money not an issue no more
Bout to tell, like a missile, wow, wow
I know they looking for what's different, wow, wow
Pluman got 'em on the ceiling, wow, wow
No morals for every season, yeah, yeah
I'ma kill 'em with the music you, yeah, yeah
I done got 'em in their feelings, wow, wow
I won't miss out on my millions
I can't wait to say the money not an issue no more
Bout to tell, like a missile, wow, wow
I know they looking for what's different, wow, wow
Pluman got 'em on the ceiling, wow, wow
No morals for every season, yeah, yeah
I'ma kill 'em with the music you, yeah, yeah
I done got 'em in their feelings, wow, wow
I won't miss out on my millions

From a promise said that [?]
Had to sign them bitches since I was little God put me to the plug, fuck a middle
I done almost get no [?], but I'll keep going
All this loser shit, gon send me, I can't go wrong
Cause I know what it takes to cut the team on
I gotta hustle with no breaks and turn the team on

I can't wait to say the money not an issue no more
Bout to tell, like a missile, wow, wow
I know they looking for what's different, wow, wow
Pluman got 'em on the ceiling, wow, wow
No morals for every season, yeah, yeah
I'ma kill 'em with the music you, yeah, yeah
I done got 'em in their feelings, wow, wow
I won't miss out on my millions
I can't wait to say the money not an issue no more
Bout to tell, like a missile, wow, wow
I know they looking for what's different, wow, wow
Pluman got 'em on the ceiling, wow, wow
No morals for every season, yeah, yeah

Mama took it off her children, yeah
As a youngin couldn't notice, yeah
Kept this old flow, kept this balance, yeah
Overcoming every challenge, yeah
Gifted and I thank God for this talent, yeah
Mama taught me how to pray when it was darkness

Ain't no weapon formed against me, that's a promise

I can't wait to say the money not an issue no more
Bout to tell, like a missile, wow, wow
I know they looking for what's different, wow, wow
Pluman got 'em on the ceiling, wow, wow
