

Redemption

KayCyy

Why would I tell you these lies, and so much stress on your mind
Why would I bring you in public when I did not think you are mine
Knocking at every suspicion and tell you I won't waste your time
That's what I get cause I settle for women that force me to fall on the line

Now I am stuck tryna prove to you that I don't have the same intentions
You got me searching for these words to say to you
Oh, please give me time
I'm searchin' for these words to say to you right now
Redemption's on your mind when you think about me
And I am still tryna find a way
Cause redemption's on your mind when you think about me

I made it clear from the get go
I made it clear from the get go
I thought you knew where I am coming from
I thought you knew where I came from
Dirty ghetto from the east side, I treat my women like my nina
And that don't never leave my side no
I don't got shit to hide now
I give you my trust and my pride now
It's up to you if we stay now'
How we gone move what's the plan now

Now I am stuck tryna prove to you that I don't have the same intentions
Over and over, I'm searchin' for these words to say to you
Please give me time cause I'm searchin' for these words to say to you right now, to say to you
Redemption's on your mind when you think about me

There you go you rather listen to someone else, you rather listen to someone else
After all the things I told you by myself
You wanna go through my phone, find some shit that I fucked up on
But fucking text in this ocean
Fuck them calls that's our shit
I don't fuck with her, I thought you know this
I can have phones when I want to
I can have phones when I want to
I can have them when I have you
It's only you when I got you

I made it clear from the jump that it is only me and you
So what's with the questions about me and you
I gave you the answers
