

I need a lover
I need someone who understands
I ain't your mother
Don't spend my time with just any man
Well
Are you on the level?
Are you tryna be slick? 'Cause I'm way more clever, and
If you ain't ready
You ain't gotta lie, just say you ain't ready 'cause
All of that lame shit, ain't toleratin', I don't need you
'Cause

This is not a vibe, it's a culture, nigga
You don't know the vibe? I can coach you, nigga
You don't know the way? Come go with me
You don't know the rules? Act like you do
You got what it takes? Then follow through
I don't wanna wait when I call on you
I don't wanna wait when I call
It's the culture, nigga, yeah
You don't know the vibe? I can coach you, nigga
You don't know the way? Come go with me
You don't know the rules? Act like you do
You got what it takes? Then follow through
I don't wanna wait when I call on you
I don't wanna wait

The love and laughter
That's all that I'm after
No natural disaster could break up our bond
(Not the type of shit I'm on)
Hold up, but
Are you on the level?
Know it's all good, don't you want it more better?
We focused on the money, but
When it gets deep, really, all we want is love
Don't you want the good vibes?
Don't you want the star shine?
Won't you let the good vibes set into your life like
Summer nights
Sipping brown and smoking green under starlights
All these feels
Have you feeling like this feeling can't be real
Because

This is not a vibe, it's a culture, nigga (Yeah)
We don't know the vibe, that's the culture, nigga
You don't know the way? Come go with me
You don't know the rules? Act like you do
You got what it takes? Then follow through
I don't wanna wait when I call on you
I don't wanna wait (When I call)
It's the culture, nigga (Oh), yeah
I can coach you, nigga (Oh)
You don't know the way? Come go with me
You don't know the rules? Act like you do
You got what it takes? Then follow through

I don't wanna wait when I call on you
I don't wanna wait when I call

Call, call, call
When I call
Call, call, call (Hey)
