Magic

It's something special in the moment
It's 2:15 up in the morning
I'm talking to ya, but I'm really tryna hold your hand

Spirits

They're all around you, can you feel it?
My niggas don't believe in creepers though
They see you dancing, girl, they watch it go off

I can feel you in the night
No lie
I don't want no other vibe
No lie
I been missing something that, that I cannot control
When I need you, in your arms, in your eyes
I realize it's vital

You make me feel like I been floating
This is ain't that spell, you got me loving, girl
You're being witchy, and I love it girl

Can you feel it?
Come and lie down
Come and lie down
Come and lie down
With me, yeah
With me, yeah
