This ain't nuthin' to me
You can write the rules, we never do em'
You put up the walls and we'll go through them
Yeah, we'll refuse
No, we won't do it
No, we won't do it

Young rapper with a conscious
Native North got the compass
You not Jesus, boy stop it
What you see, you can't comment
What you see, you can't comment
Over my dead body, you can have all of my money
Before you go get my obedience
I am American, Black is my heritage
But, before that, I am a child of the kingdom
That is my country, that is my country
We have a leader and none of your votes are persuading him either
Get my taxes this season, but not my allegiance
Who are you loyal to?
Rebel, rebel, rebel, rebel, rebel, rebel, rebel, rebel boy
Never Bevel sharp as ever, never settle
Long as he is roll stone the pedal boy
My God, Democrat or Republican
Know that God isn't none of them
Oh, you loving your party?
Can you love folk, regardless?
We gon' love the people that you never had the time for, you forgot 'em
I'ma find 'em, I'ma guide 'em, 9-to-5 'em
God will crown them, God will crown them
Rebel the norm, embrace the scorn, rebel the porn, you been warned, we won't conform
(That's it)

This ain't nuthin' to me
You can write the rules, we never do em'
You put up the walls and we'll go through them
Yeah, we'll refuse
No, we won't do it
No, we won't do it

I might buy a condo in Miami now
Make it free for Refugee family now
Went to Bible College with no plan b boy
Simple rap for money and we [?]
My brother still in the field paying money
Choice between two evils, I'm rebelling

This is what I live for homie, this is the hill I'm buried on
If Jesus is the truth, one of us is very wrong
Know that our God reigns, precipitates grace
As the day that the fall came
Abel, the call came for the fame, he part ways
Broke in the arcade, not a token for ya'll dang
Only one mantra, HGA til' the coffin
Homie, this ain't no option
Are you finished or done?
I am merely a sinner
I'm just really forgiven
Respect our existence, respect our existence
Or expect our resistance, yeah
This ain't nothin'

This ain't nuthin' to me
You can write the rules, we never do em'
You put up the walls and we'll go through them
Yeah, we refuse
No, we won't do it
No, we won't do it
