

Your Way

KB

At another burial
And this one's for the hope
We would make it, yeah

If friendships pass away
And the dreams we thought we made
I couldn't save it

Will I just go and give it my all to watch it all fall?
I don't know anymore, will this heal? I need peace, not control
You know

Oh, come
Come have Your way
Yeah, come have Your way
In all that You give
And all that You take
Yeah, come have Your way
Yeah, come have Your way

He is jealous for me
Loves my frailty
There's a God who weeps for me
And His healing I have seen
When I'm a broken reed
With wounds I caused to bleed
But You're gentle with the weak, yeah

You were nothing like us, I would've left me so long ago
With all my faults, by Your hands I was caught, make me free, Lord, what must I let go?
Oh, my soul

I say come, come have Your way
Yeah, come have Your way
Show me what I must hold
Show me what I must break
Yeah, come have Your way
Lord, come have Your way
If You give, if You take
I am safe

Yeah
Oh, yeah, oh
If You give, if You take, I am safe
Oh, yeah, oh, oh

You brought me this far
You know it all
End from the start, don't let me, don't let me go, safety in Your arms
This will be hard, but you'll be my guide
My God

Come
Come have Your way
Yeah, come have Your way

Show me what I must break
Come have Your way
If You give, if You take, I am safe

Oh yes, I am, oh yes, I am
I know I'm safe with You
With You, I am safe
