

High Enough

Keaton Simons

You feel it
You know it
You try to control it
You just can't remember how
So save your intentions
Hang up your conventions
To hell with redemption now
You can't help but wonder if you're still the same
That's when you ask yourself if
High enough is high enough
You're reaching for the stars
But is that good enough?
Not good enough's a line you haven't heard enough
Do you ever blow it?
If you're human then show it
They called it
You feared it
Don't want to go near it
One more thing you won't allow
They want you
They need you
Don't want to adhere to
The same damn rules 'cause you're too proud
And everyone tells you that you're not the same
As they're walking out they ask if
High enough is high enough
You're reaching for the stars
But is that good enough?
Not good enough's a line you haven't heard enough
Do you ever blow it?
If you're human then show it
Where can you go when it's time to complain?
And you've only got yourself to blame
Just take it slow and try to maintain
'Cause it's too hard to explain
You can't help but wonder if you're still the same
As they're walking by they ask if
High enough is high enough
You're reaching for the stars
But is that good enough?
Not good enough's a line you haven't heard enough
Do you ever blow it?
If you're human then show it
