

Cold Outside

Keb' Mo'

When the sun goes down and the daylight disappears
When the sun goes down and the daylight disappears
I thought it was cold outside 'til I walked in here
'Til I walked in here

Baby, I can feel what I can't see and I can't hear
I can feel what I can't see and I can't hear
So tell me why it's so doggone cold in here
Cold in here

Baby, don't lie, don't be so insincere
Baby, don't you lie to me, don't be so insincere
'Cause, baby, I know your other man been here
Your other man been here

You didn't make no greens
No beans, no rice
You ain't been mean
But you ain't been nice
Ooh, ooh

I'm gonna drive that train 'cause, baby, I'm an engineer
I'm gonna drive that train 'cause, baby, I'm an engineer
Baby, it's cold outside but I can't stay in here
Baby, it's cold outside
Cold outside (I, can't stay in here)
