

So Easy

Keb' Mo'

I used to be afraid to let go
And open up my heart
Standing in the shadows
Crying in the dark
Then you turned on the light
And you freed my soul
You gave me back my confidence
Now my life is making sense

It's so easy to say
I need you night and day
So easy to say, "I love you"
It's so easy to say
I need you right away
So easy to say, "I love you"
I love you

I used to think that I could get by
But not go far
And that you would never know me
And never know my heart
But I've seen a change for the better
And I'm feeling alright
You know how to lift me up
I'm never gonna give you p

It's so easy to say
I need you night and day
So easy to say, "I love you"
It's so easy to say
I need you right away
So easy to say, "I love you"
I love you

You're everything that I long for
But there's one thing that I know for sure
That it's you baby
It's you, baby

It's so easy to say
I need you night and day
So easy to say, "I love you"
It's so easy to say
I need you right away
So easy to say, "I love you"
I love you

So easy to say (so easy) (so easy)
So easy to (so easy) (so easy)
So easy to say (oh)
I love you, I love ya
So easy to say (so easy) (so easy)
So easy to (to say I love ya) (so easy)
So easy to say (oh, yeah)
I love you, I love you
