

The Medicine Man

Keb' Mo'

Well, it looks to me like the end is coming
Feets hurt and my nose is running
Friends and neighbors are dropping like flies
Better cover your face, sanitize

And everybody's doing the best that they can
And we're all just waiting on the medicine man
The medicine man

Well, you better lock your doors, turn on the news
The whole damn world is singing the blues
President lost but he don't wanna go
Mother earth, she needs a little help, you know

And everybody's doing the best that they can
We're all just waiting on the medicine man
The medicine man

We're gonna give everybody a little dose
But we got to give it to the people who need it the most

I can't tell what the future holds
It might turn to crap, it might turn to gold
Maybe the bees might teach the pigs to fly
But I'm just gonna love everybody till the day I die

Everybody's doing the best that they can
We're all just waiting on the medicine man
We're all just waiting on the medicine man
