

Thicker Than Mud

Keb' Mo'

Won't be long till I'm in the roses
You'll be strong and you'll find out that
Blood is thicker than mud

When I'm gone I will still be with you
Sing my song, I'll be singing with you
Blood is thicker than mud

As the snow flies
Years pass on by
Blood is thicker than mud

Time goes by like a dream of Heaven
Blink your eye, you might miss the sermon
Blood is thicker than mud

One foot here, one foot in tomorrow
One more day to drain the cup of sorrow
Blood is thicker than mud

As the snow flies
Years pass on by
Blood is thicker than mud

You can be
Complicated, obligated, isolated, automated
Or be
Concentrated, educated, motivated, stimulated
So then you'll be Celebrated, decorated, coronated, liberated
That's right, 'cause blood is thicker than mud

When your way gets dark and lonesome
Turn your head to the stars and know that
Blood, sure enough, is thicker than mud

When you get stuck and your wheels are spinning
Just reach out, you'll find what you're missing
Blood is thicker than mud

As the snow flies
Years pass on by
Blood is thicker than mud

As the snow flies
Years pass on by
Blood is thicker than mud
Thicker than mud