

Nothing

Keenan Te

Are you getting tired?
From going in circles and getting nowhere
Do you feel the fire?
Cause I feel like it's burning me tonight while you're

Looking down at your phone
Do you even know
That I'm sitting here right by your side?
Driving you home
Never felt so alone
So why can't I say goodbye?

Staying up all night
Tryna change your mind
But you just keep runnin'
I just need somethin'
You say you're mine
But all this time
I just get nothing (nothing)
So I just keep tryna
Lie to myself
Make it seem like it's okay
Walking through hell
Anything to make you stay
But I still hate
That you're giving me nothing, nothing
But nothing's too much to take
(Nothing's too much to take)

I don't believe ya
When you say I'm everything that you wanted
I wish I could give up
But it's too hard to walk away cause I put all this

Time into you
Don't want someone new
We've still got so much left to do
If you had it your way
Would you call it a day?
And tell me that there's no use

Staying up all night
Tryna change your mind
But you just keep runnin'
I just need somethin'
You say you're mine
But all this time
I just get nothing
So I just keep tryna
Lie to myself
Make it seem like it's okay
Walking through hell
Anything to make you stay
But I still hate
That you're giving me nothing, nothing
But nothing's too much to take

Ohhhh ohhhh
Nothing's too much to take
Ohhhh ohhhh
But it's too much to

Lie to myself
Make it seem like it's okay
Walking through hell
Anything to make you stay
But I still hate
But nothing's too much to take
