Kehlani

It's okay to not be okay
To dive in your pain
And it's alright to not be alright
To search for your light
And it's all good to not be all good
To feel like you shouldn't feel any better

You gotta lose you just a little
Lose your cool just a little
I won't judge you a little
Not even a little bit
I know you're fuckin' sick of it

I don't know nobody
Who thinks that they're somebody
24/7
24/7
I don't know nobody
Who smiles at everybody
24/7
24/7

It's the wave to not be the wave
To make all your mistakes
And it's the play to not know the play
To go where the wind takes you
It's all fine to not think you're fine
Or have the wish to feel any better

You gotta lose you just a little
Lose your cool just a little
I won't judge you a little
Not even a little bit
I know you're fuckin' sick of it

I don't know nobody
Who thinks that they're somebody
24/7
24/7, 24/7
I don't know nobody
Who smiles at everybody
24/7
24/7

I have my days when I am upside-down, topsy-turvy
I have my days when I am not myself, and I'm not worried
I have my nights when I'm not anxious
To wake up and feel any better

I don't know nobody
Who thinks that they're somebody
24/7
24/7
I don't know nobody
Who smiles at everybody
24/7
24/7

I don't know nobody
Who thinks that they're somebody
24/7
24/7, 24/7
I don't know nobody
Who smiles at everybody
24/7
24/7
