

Change

Kehlani

You've got me all in my feelings
And I know you get tired from running through my mind
You stole my heart, and I mean it
You can't take what you need and not give back to me (Got me thinking) Should I stay? Should I go?
Should I leave? I don't know
Goddamn

'Cause thinking of you (Thinking of you)
It's all I do (It's all I do)
Honestly, I might go insane
'Cause when we break up
Can't wait to make up
Girl, you know some things will never change

No, no
Oh, no, no, no, going in circles
No, no, no, no, oh, go in circles

You can't keep coming and going
In and out of my life, please make up your fucking mind
I give you time and you kill it
It's very personal to me that you give it everything, yeah
Should I stay? Should I go?
Should I leave? I don't know
Goddamn

Thinking of you (Thinking of you)
It's all I do (It's all I do)
Honestly, I might go insane
'Cause when we break up (Break up)
Can't wait to make up (Oh)
'Cause girl, you know some things will never change

Should I leave? Should I stay? Should I go?
Ball in your court, lay it up, let me know
I been around for years, back when everything was slow
You a superstar now, I always told you you would blow

I see you, I wanna please you, I wanna breathe you
If you ever lost, I wanna be the one to lead you
Pick you up at night, take a drive, shit, I'll feed you
Something 'bout me, I could guarantee I could complete you

I'm a woman that's gonna show up when they ask you who you ridin' with
Who got her own around her neck, I'm who you shinin' with Pushing for this love, 'cause what you water's what you grow
Look at God, look at love, look at how it overflow

Thinking of you (Thinking of you)
It's all I do (It's all I do)
Honestly, I might go insane
'Cause when we break up (When we break up)
Can't wait to make up
Girl, you know some things will never change

No, no, no, no, oh

I keep going through circles, circles all around you
