everything

Kehlani

I could blame it on the physical
I could blame it on your lips, your touch, your kiss
You know, real traditional
But your love's too original
You are anything but conventional Baby, did you know that
From the moment we fell in, I knew we could fall back
Knew I'd always crawl back, ooh

'Cause, baby, it's the everything for me
For me, for me
Baby, it's the everything for me
For me, oh, for me
'Cause, baby, it's the everything, no tryin'
You be shinin', my silver linin'
'Cause, baby, it's the everything for me
For me, oh, for me

I love the way you teach me
Love the way you listen
You know all my details
You so damn attentive
You got my attention, babe
You can't forget to mention, babe
I'ma keep you lifted
You so fuckin' gifted
And how many girls out in the world can say that they had it?
And how many bitches that became your missus can maintain the status?
That was before me, it's childish, you done with your wilin'
Now you can be wild with me, run that mile with me
Catch some flights out with me, oh
I match your energy, match your fly perfectly
Lips lock intensively, want you extensively
I know you was made for me, think you was made with me
Shit feel like destiny

'Cause, baby, it's the everything for me
For me, oh, for me
This is such a different thing for me
For me, yeah, oh, for me
Baby, it's the everything, no tryin'
You be shinin', my silver linin'
'Cause, baby, it's the everything for me
For me, oh, for me

Everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything
Everything, everything, everything
