

Know Better

Kehlani

Uh-uh, oh-oh, yeah
No, no
Kehlani, you crazy for this one

I got the body of a goddess
You wanna love me right here, right now, just be honest
We the baddest in this club, in your city I'm the hottest, ay
Sweating me like tropics
What reason I got to be modest
When I fly first class next to the pilot?
I feel the highest, feel like I could fly
I might count up tonight, make you feel like you're mine
I swear you look like when the stars align
You such a treat, I might trick every time

But I won't run that play
You call and I might stay
Still don't ever pay no mind when you say

(Whoa, whoa) We should make it official
But we both young and crazy, babe
We don't want none of those issues
But tonight we might act like we don't know better
Said, "Tonight we might act like we don't know better." (We don't know better, ooh-ooh)

We gon' act like we don't know
Put you in the passenger, ain't ridin' solo
I ain't with the overthinkin', that's a no-no
Get the horse back on me like I'm wearin' Polo
Giddy up, then
Ain't no ceiling when we get it up there, ooh
I'm the type your daddy said, "Don't fuck with," you
Makin' me nervous, my mind says, "No."
My body's workin', I can feel it workin' on me (I'm workin' on me)
And I ain't really with the stop signs (Stop signs)
We found the right thing at the wrong time
I could treat you like it's all mine

But I don't run that play (Mm, I don't run that play)
You call and I might stay (Ooh-ooh)
Still don't ever pay no mind when you say

We should make it official (Official)
But we both young and crazy, babe
We don't want none of those issues
But tonight we might act like we don't know better, ooh
Said, "Tonight we might act like we don't know better." (We don't know better)
( 'Cause tonight)

We should know better than to think it's a game
I never let nobody play on my name
I know you know the letter come with a ring
So if I ever give it to you, know it wasn't in vain
What's understood don't gotta be explained
I'm from the hood, I know love ain't safe

I feel good whenever I see your face
Baby, hit one knee, 'cause I can't wait
Trust me, love me better than my last
Let me make your life a breeze, let me make you laugh
If I catch a sentence, blow me kisses through the glass, ay
Dark times in a nigga past
But we ain't even gotta get into that (No)
The moon full and the night is young
Party ain't a party if it end before you see the sun (No way)
I got a feelin' you could be the one

We should make it official (Official)
But we both young and crazy, babe
We don't want none of those issues
But tonight we might act like we don't know better, ooh
Said, "Tonight we might act like we don't know better." (We don't know better, ooh)
