Kehlani

What have you done for me lately?
Can you tell me? 'Cause I don't understand
All I wanna do is love with no limits
But you only wanna get in my way

Am I wrong
When I want you to know
What I want you to know?
Just read my mind
Before I say it twice
I could leave on the first time
Promised I would never do this again
Now I'm caught in the wind, I'm

So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever again
Ever again, yeah, no
So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever again
Ever again, yeah, no

Sittin' up in my face, don't know what to say
'Cause no one wants to walk away (Way)
You just let me know how you want this to go
There's no room for the back and forth

And I want you to see
That it ain't gon' be me
Losin' my mind
So we can say goodbye (Bye)
Didn't work on the first try
Promised I would never do this again
You just lost a good friend, I'm

So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever again
Ever again, yeah, no

I'm not in the place to be broken
So I'm holdin' hope that you'll change
But you're stuck in your ways and I'm growin'
So there's still emotions that don't have a place
So I would rather never love, no, no

So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever
So I'm never gonna love ever again
Ever again, yeah, no
So I'm never gonna love ever (Gonna love)
So I'm never gonna love ever (Never gonna love)
So I'm never gonna love never again
And again, and again, and again, yeah
So I'm never gonna love ever (Never gonna)
So I'm never gonna love ever (Nah, ooh)

So I'm never gonna love never again (Ooh, never)
Ever again, yeah, no (Never again, no)

One, two
