

Praying

KEiINO

Wherever I go
Whenever I sleep
Whatever I do
You always linger with me
I'm drying my tears
I'm facing my fears
Got nowhere to run
You're always gonna find me

But my body feels so strong tonight
A chaos born in candlelight
Don't wanna go home
A darkness waiting on the throne
Been fighting shadows all alone
I fear them tonight

Should I be praying?
I found my grace in staying
True to every bone in me
Please don't call me down
I'm not pretending
My light is never-ending
There will come a day for me
Sing it to me carefully

Should I be praying?
Am I lost? I don't wanna go home
If I must I'll be fighting alone
Won't let anybody hold me down
Should I be praying?
Am I lost? I don't wanna go home now
Praying, praying, praying
Won't let anybody hold me down

Whatever I've known
Wherever I've been
Whomever I loved
You wanna take it from me, ooh

But my body feels so strong tonight
A chaos born in candlelight
Don't wanna go home
A shadow I can feel alone
Can't shake it off or calm it down
I fear them tonight

Should I be praying?
Am I lost? I don't wanna go home
If I must I'll be fighting alone
Won't let anybody hold me down
Should I be praying?
Am I lost? I don't wanna go home now
Praying, praying, praying
Won't let anybody hold me down

Praying, praying

Should I be praying?
Am I lost? I don't wanna go home
If I must I'll be fighting alone
Won't let anybody hold me down
Should I be praying?
Am I lost? I don't wanna go home now
Praying, praying, praying
Won't let anybody hold me down

Praying
Praying, praying, praying
Praying, praying, praying
Won't let anybody hold me down
