

You Don't Have To Feel Guilty

Keith Ape

I don't care bout anybody's feelings
How they think about me
I'm just tryna get higher than a ceiling
So I can leave what I been feeling
I know I don't have to feel the guilty

I don't care bout anybody's feelings
How they think about me
I'm just tryna get higher than a ceiling
So I can leave what I been feeling
I know I don't have to feel the guilty
I don't look back, bitch!
Past what I don't think about it, that's a necessary thing
Just a moving forward it, just keep on moving forward
If u doubt it, I let you keep on doubt it
They don't get it cuz that's the where they are lackin'

I don't care bout anybody's feelings
How they think about me
I'm just tryna get higher than a ceiling
So I can leave what I been feeling
I know I don't have to feel the guilty
I don't look back, bitch!
Past what I don't think about it, that's a necessary thing
Just a moving forward it, just keep on moving forward
If u doubt it, I let you keep on doubt it
They don't get it cuz that's the where they are lackin'

Ay pussy ninja try me then I show him what's happening
Fuck ninja talking reckless he gon gets steppin'
On the face with Black Timbs and Forces
See how we gon' treat him just like roaches
Smoke him like a big boof pack where's the torches at Don't trust these new face ninjas they might be a rat
You know snakes in the grass
I don't cut, I just burn 'em that Tryna give 'em hell, you know how I am
I don't really give a damn, you know how I am
I just tryna bring 'em flame straight from the hell
I don't want hurt anybody, don't get hurt by anybody
Past what I don't think about it
So could you not talk around me
Don't give a fuck about me

Anybody's feelings
How they think about me
I'm just tryna get higher than a ceiling
So I can leave what I been feeling
I know I don't have to feel the guilty
I don't look back, bitch!
Past what I don't think about it, that's a necessary thing
Just a moving forward it, just keep on moving forward
If u doubt it, I let you keep on doubt it
They don't get it cuz that's the where they are lackin'

I don't care bout anybody's feelings
How they think about me

I'm just tryna get higher than a ceiling
So I can leave what I been feeling
I know I don't have to feel the guilty
I don't look back, bitch!
Past what I don't think about it, that's a necessary thing
Just a moving forward it, just keep on moving forward
If u doubt it, I let you keep on doubt it
They don't get it cuz that's the where they are lackin'

I don't care bout anybody's feelings
How they think about me
