

Hurricane

Keith Richards

Everyone in town remembers the last hurricane
Everyone in town hopes it won't happen again
Oh how it shrieks
Days turn into weeks
'Cause nobody knew which way the wind blew

But oh how it shrieks
Days turn into weeks
'Cause nobody knows which way the wind blows

Everyone in town remembers the last hurricane
Everyone in town hopes it doesn't happen again
'Cause oh how it shrieks
Days turn into weeks
And nobody knew, no one in town knew
Which way the wind blew
