

Suspicious

Keith Richards

Suspicious as it seems you're cropping up in dreams
What have you done to me?
I knew it from the start, you better barricade your heart
What've you done to me

Why should we break up?
Some kinda shakeup?
I deserve more sympathy

Somewhere in your heart you saved a little part
Look what've you done to me
Well, I hope you're satisfied with what've you done to me

Oh, don't let us breakup
Some kinda shakeup
Go give some sympathy

Somewhere deep inside you've been taken for a ride
Look what've you done to me
And now that we all cried, well I hope you're satisfied
Well, you're almost done for me

Suspicious as it seems you're cropping up in dreams
What have you done to me?

Why should we breakup?
Some kinda shakeup?
I deserve more sympathy

In your heart, I know that there is a part
That you've kept just for me
No matter what you do I'm still a part of you
You'll never be free of me

Why should we breakup?
Some kinda shakeup?
I deserve some sympathy

I told you from the start you better barricade that heart
'Cause what've you done to me
