

Too Rude

Keith Richards

Girl, you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you
Girl you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you.

Everywhere, all over the place
Every man he has a picture of your face
Hey little girl, don't you realize
This is a goddam disgrace

Girl, you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you
Girl you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you.

Ooh, little girl, you never want me
Tomorrow night you say you need my key
Hey little girl, go and have a ball
You know one day, girl, you're bound to fall.

Girl, you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you
Girl you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you.

Girl, you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you
Girl you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you.

Everywhere, all over the place
Every man he has a picture of your face
Hey little girl, don't you realize
This is a goddam disgrace

Girl, you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you
Girl you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you.

Girl, you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you
Girl you're too bad, girl you're too rude
Every man I speak to says he wants you.
