

Trust Me

Keith Sweat

So you don't trust me no more, huh?

Mmmm

Never made you mad,

No I didn't girl.

Never made you sad,

So what I ever do?

Oooh

Girl I'm here with you

Share my love and dreams with you

And I promise my love its a lie

Somebody told you somebody saw you

(Somebody told you somebody saw me)

Said that I been messin round, runnin the street

(Said that I been messin round, runnin the street)

Kept it real with so keep real with me

(see I always kept it real with you)

See there ain't no love if you don't trust me

See after five long years, (five long years)

I would that you know better

That they ain't gonna stop trying to break us up

See your friends they're lying

There just mad your my wife

And there only, only tryin to take your space

Tell me girl, (oh tell me girl)

Who was there for when there was no-one around

Who had some time when there was no love to be found

Tell me baby, baby why u keep on doubtin me?

Mama used to tell me, Misery loves company

Now that I'm grown I see what she meant (just what she meant)

Why is it people hate to see things when its right?

And for some reason they come and try to mess up their life (tell me why)

If it can't be theirs.

It ain't gona happen
