For you and I, it's easy to, run away
Resupply I still remain the enemy
Nothing feels, the same without you
Reaching out, I still feel your, energy
I find you in my dreams, with seamless lucidity
You are so hard, to say goodbye to

You feel, like home
You know, I need you, when you're gone
Though we are, oceans apart
You don't have, to feel alone

Over come, adjusting to the, space
Hide and seek, with this new, reality
You are so hard, to say goodbye to

You feel, like home
You know, I need you, when you're gone
Though we are, oceans apart
You don't have, to feel alone

And I just may, be alright
Just one more, restless night
Always under skin, your body moves alone

You feel, like home
You know, I need you, when you're gone
(You know, I need you, when you're gone)
Though we are, oceans apart
You don't have, to feel alone

You feel, like home
You know, I need you, when you're gone
(You know, I need you)
Though we are, oceans apart
You don't have, to feel alone
