

Twilight

Keith Wallen

I see someone in the mirror
But I don't know who it is
And if I possess the power to change
I don't know where it is

Well, who do you, think you are?
I wonder
(Who, who?)

I am just another miserable
Enigma
Nothing less and nothing more
Enigma

Well who do you think you are?
I wonder
Who do you think you are?
I wonder

So say a prayer for me now
Maybe you can shine in on my dark skies
So take good care of me now
I've got a ways to go here in this twilight

(Who, who?)

Why does it feel like I'm dying
To change who I am?
All of this silent defiance
I'll never understand
Why test on this man?

So say a prayer for me now
Maybe you can shine in on my dark skies
So take good care of me now
I've got a ways to go here in this twilight

(Who, who?)
