

Chocolate

Keiynan Lonsdale

Give me a smile
Everything will be alright in the sky of love
There'll be no time
Everything is now and that will be right enough

I've been fighting through hell
But I just don't give a damn
Cause I realised the fire was in
The palm of my hand
But I got my new shoes baby
And I can run on the ocean blues

Give me a smile
Everything will be alright in the sky of love
There'll be no time
Everything is now and that will be right enough

Roll it up and then ya and then ya and then ya
Keep it up and then ya and then ya
Then ya gonna leave it up
And then ya and then ya then ya gotta
Mm bop

Don't know what to say about your wasted nights
Don't know what to say about it
Don't you wanna lay under the sacred stars
Don't you wanna lay under it

And when we die
Everything will be alright on the other side
Circle of life
Everything's just dancing round and round all night

See boy it's all just chocolate
What?
Now now listen here
I said see boy
It's all just chocolate
Can't you feel it

And life's sweet
Sweet like chocolate
And life's sweet
Sweet like chocolate
And that's the key
Life is chocolate

Ain't that the truth
