

I Confess My Love

Keiynan Lonsdale

I don't know if I can wait anymore
You treat my feelings like they're dirt on the floor
And my heart goes
Baby my heart goes

Walked out the door left me alone
Thinking that I was missing
No way to call no signs at all
Well it's been a week eternity
Since you and I been kissing
No one to blame
Though it's a shame

When I give my all you still need attention
Tell you I love you but you don't listen
Say I went ghost but that's supervision
I'm sorry that
Me being me is not what you pictured
I think you expect something straight outta fiction
But I'm really here not on television yeah

How can I confess my love
If you don't believe me
Scared that it's too easy
You won't ever stop my love
Even if you hate me
I will be there baby
Cause you're a part of me

I'll wait for you just like I do
No matter how much wasted
Just promise me you'll try to see
That I long for you
High altitude
This is a climb worth taking
To the unknown will you follow me?

But when I give my all you still need attention
Tell you I love you but you don't listen
Say I went ghost but that's supervision
I'm sorry that
Me being me is not what you pictured
I think you expect something straight outta fiction
But I'm really here not on television yeah oh

How can I confess my love
If you don't believe me
Scared that it's too easy
You won't ever stop my love
Even if you hate me
I will be there baby

And now I think I really know the truth
I can tell just what you put me through
You been throwing fake love around
Just to tear me back down

So don't you dare go and play victim again
If you cared you'd try to introspect
See I been begging to prove that
I'm worth loving you
But the more that I grow
The more I need to let this shit go

How can I confess my love
You won't ever stop my love
Even if you hate me
I will be there baby

I forgive you
But I gotta let this shit go
You lying dirty cheat
I forgive you
Baby
