

We Are The Children

Keiynan Lonsdale

Rise my child
To the garden of love and care
Where you ain't gotta be
Frightened of anything
You can just be
Free
Oh wouldn't that be neat
A world in which you and I, we're free
See that's where I'm going
That's where I'ma be
Floating, flying
Free

Fighting for the truth so I know I'll be alright
And if I'ma play a hero I'ma show them to the light
I gotta run and tell these kids that we'll be fine

Cause we deserve to love
We deserve to trust
We deserve to live our lives
Cause we are the children
Rise, oh rise
Rise free
