

Hooked

Keke Palmer

Catour, fuck it up

I just miss you right now, feeling doesn't last long
Get here or I'll time out (time out)
I just miss you right now, I don't make this habit
But once in a while

Nights like this, I could use it
Not consistent, just every blue moon and
We both grown, we know what we doing
Don't talk, just listen, I'm saying some true shit, yeah

Ay, cut him off, he a bush to me
You don't know, I bet you more looks than me
Coco Chanel look good on me, oh
One touch, got him hooked on me
Classy chick, but the hood in me, oh
Ay, cut him off, he a bush to me
You don't know, I bet you more looks than me
Coco Chanel look good on me, oh
One touch got him hooked on me
Classy chick, but the hood in me, though

I know you're using me, oh
I'm using you, too, it's mutual (I'm ready)
Drop me that Addy, I'm pulling up
Don't get used to it, though
'Cause it's only, oh

Nights like this, I could use it
Not consistent, just every blue moon and
We both grown, we know what we doing
Don't talk, just listen, I'm saying some true shit, yeah

Ay, cut him off, he a bush to me
