

Enough

KeKe Wyatt

It's crazy, I know just how you're feeling
So alone, hope it's gone 'til it's useless
Don't let yourself fall apart
Is not a movie, it's addicting like a drug
It's so scary, I won't let it bring me down
It ain't a beauty, and it's so emotional it's overwhelming

Don't be blinded by love
Cause enough's enough's enough's enough
Heard a million stories
Enough's enough's enough's enough
You got to let him go
There is no reason to love love love love
Can't let him take control
It's only burning you
Enough's enough's enough's enough
It's tearing you apart

Lately I know at times you have been empty
So lost without the calls it's confusion
Don't let it disturb your mind, oh no
You can lose it, I have seen it with my eyes
It's abusive, and it comes in different disguises
Some excuse it, it can leave you so hurt and miserable
Without a question

Can't be blinded by love
Cause enough's enough enough's enough
Heard a million stories
Enough's enough enough's enough
You got to let him go
There is no reason to love love love love
Can't let him take control
It's only burning you
Enough's enough enough's enough
It's tearing you apart

I know love makes you do some crazy things
First it plays with your emotions then you're stuck with the shame
It starts out cool, then it ends cold,
And out of blue it winds up, it slaps you in the face
I hope you will find someone that cares about you girl
Who respect you who appreciates you and holds it down for you
Gotta know how much you're truly worth
Enough is enough

Don't be blinded by love
Cause enough's enough enough's enough
Heard a million stories
Enough's enough enough's enough
You got to let him go
There is no reason to love love love love
Can't let him take control
It's only burning you
Enough's enough's enough's enough
It's tearing you apart no, no
It's only burning you, enough enough
