

If It Ain't You

KeKe Wyatt

Drowning in a bottle
Drink it all away
Anything to guide me
Away from the pain

And the truth of the matter is
I know it was all on me
But I can't go on without you here
That's my word, I'll go under

Tell me what is life about
If you ain't in this house
I swear I'd rather die
If it ain't, if it ain't

If it ain't you (if it ain't you)
Tell me who am I gonna wake up to
If it ain't you (if it ain't you)
Baby, I don't wanna wake up...

If I can't be with you, be with you
I can't think, can't live, can't dream
If it ain't you, if it ain't you
I don't wanna wake up if it ain't you

I should have listened to the sound
Of your broken heart
Telling me
That you couldn't take it any more

But instead I neglected, look where it left me
Stretched out on this floor
With this phone in one hand and your picture in the other one
I guess I gotta suffer, but what...

Tell me what is life about
If you ain't in this house
I swear I'd rather die
If it ain't, if it ain't

If it ain't you (if it ain't you)
Tell me who am I gonna wake up to
If it ain't you (if it ain't you)
Baby, I don't wanna wake up...

I'd give up my last dollar
To turn it all around
But boy, I swear I'd die...
If it ain't, if it ain't

If it ain't you (if it ain't you)
Tell me who am I gonna wake up to
If it ain't you (if it ain't you)
Baby, I don't wanna wake up...
