

The Legacy Lament

Keldian

now I cannot dream anymore I cannot feel anymore and I cannot take anymore I cannot hope anymore

from fathers to sons
mothers, daughters long gone
our home is our legacy
from fathers to sons
mothers, daughters long gone
our home is our legacy

no, never again
I'll never return
I'll never forget
you gave this to me
I'll never pretend
I'll never deceive
I've come to the end
no, never again
