

We Are Rebellion

Keldian

by our blood the water is yours a rusty rig of creaking steel the splendor of her prime long gone when all their eyes were turned her way to marvel at her majesty, the royalty of energy the first of their crimes: they took the land away they have, we have not grey fingers grabbed ahold, empire of the grave

the last of their crimes: they took the water deceit, perfect doom
we drink the deadly rain, and breathe the cold dust

they brought the progress death by death then hid behind their walls of gold and all their eyes were turned away while horror took its hold outside, denial put down roots inside

the first of their crimes: they took the land away
deceit, perfect doom
we drink the deadly rain, and breathe the cold dust
the sum of their crimes: they took the future blood spilled, the bloodwater born and unborn, we are rebellion

deceit, perfect doom
we drink the deadly rain, and breathe the cold dust
blood spilled, the bloodwater
the bloodwater
born and unborn, we are rebellion
