

Don't mind me, I was just admiring your cracks
Each line is chipped with perfection
Shows me who you are now, I like
Don't mind me, I was just feeling your scar
Each bruise, each vein tells a tale
A lesson we've learnt

Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Listen to the bass)
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Like a rolling stone)
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Focus on the bass)
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Let it bring you home)

It doesn't matter if you make mistakes
It doesn't matter if you make mistakes 'cause it looks nice
It doesn't matter if you make mistakes
And it's okay to make mistakes

You wouldn't have lied to me in my previous life
So obsessed with justice, always ready for a fight
Failing to take my own good advice
It took the rockiest of rock bottoms for me to realise

Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Listen to the bass)
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Like a rolling stone)
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Focus on the bass)
Keep on, keep on, keep on, keep on, keep it on (Let it bring you home)

For the hurricanes that we've been through
For the storms that we've weathered
All the king's horses and all the king's men
We don't need them to put this back together

Everyone got sad
Everyone got... sad

If we take it real slow, take one day at a time
Let these words reconcile, come to me with open arms
If we take it real slow, take one day at a time
Common sense, know your minds
