

The New Rules

Kele

[Intro] (x8)

(Please hang up and try again)

[Verse 1]

I used to want to burn the world
But now I just get by
Shoot an arrow to the sun
Or as far as it can go, it's alright

[Chorus]

I'm learning to be laid back
About things
I'm learning to be laid back
About certain things
About certain things

[Verse 2]

I used to want to burn the world

But now I just get by
Shoot an arrow to the sun
Or as far as it will go, it's alright

[Verse 3]

There's nothing to prove anymore
Nothing to lose
I burned away all my desire
The hunger's gone but it's, it's alright

[Chorus]

[Post-Chorus]

Certain things
About certain things
Certain things
