

Holier

Kelela

Take it away

And though we struggle apart
Thought I was good but I'm not
And though it troubles my heart
Don't want to cover the scar

So I go where they hold me down
And I go where they hold me down
And you're not gonna take my crown
And I'm tryin' but this time around

I'ma float, yeah, I'm floating away
Sittin' around, and I found out it ain't 'bout no wait
I don't care what you're talkin' about
All the sh- that you say
You won't learn anyway

'Cause I'd rather be holier
And I'd rather be holier
Mmm, 'cause I'd rather be holier
'Cause I'd rather be holier

Never again
Never again
