

Raven

Kelela

The long way
A raven reborn
Pour it up
The weaving through scorn
It's all over
Me

Through all the labor
A raven is reborn
They tried to break her
There's nothing here to mourn
To mourn
To mourn

Took all my labor
Don't tell me that I'm strong
You'll never wake up
Your silence lasts so long
So long
So long

The hype will waver
I'm not nobody's pawn
Don't need no favors
It's all good, I've moved on
Moved on
Moved on

Over the line
Over the line, goin' in tonight
Over the line
Over the line, but it feels just right
Over the line
Over the line, leave it all tonight
Over the line
Closer to what I need tonight

I separate
Closer to what I need tonight
No other way
Starting to feel my body now
I separate
Closer to what I need tonight
No other way
And I can feel my body now
And I can feel my body now
And I can feel my body
(Closer to what I need tonight, need tonight)
Over the line, but it feels just right

Just right
Right
Just-
