

Didn't I

Kelly Clarkson

Remember, not long ago
You call me hysterical
I finally figured us out
My fire was hot enough
To burn on for the both of us
You water keeps putting us out

And I should be stem
The way you love to rain all over me
Then turn around and call me your Queen
Too blind to see, the way it strings
The pain it brings

Didn't I give you everything?
I gave you everything, baby (baby)
Baby, didn't I?
Didn't I give you everything?
You got the best of me, baby (baby)
Baby, didn't I?
Here you crying on my shoulder
Beg and hold me 'til it's over
When you're lonely, just remember
I gave you everything
Didn't I?

I'm over this tug of war
I told you so many times before
Now I'm finally letting go of the rope, yeah
This game is too ugly, boy
And these hands are tired from keeping you up
And my heart hurts from holding out hope

And I can't stay clean, from all the dirt you're throwing at me
Then turn around and call me your Queen
Too blind to see, the way it strings
Oh, the pain it brings

Didn't I give you everything?
I gave you everything, baby (baby)
Baby, didn't I?
Didn't I give you everything?
You got the best of me, baby (baby)
Baby, didn't I?
Here you crying on my shoulder
Beg and hold me 'til it's over
When you're lonely, just remember
I gave you everything
Didn't I?

Oh, yeah
Didn't I, didn't I?
Didn't I give you everything? (baby)
Didn't I, didn't I, didn't?

Didn't I give you everything?
I gave you everything, baby (baby)
Baby, didn't I?

Didn't I give you everything?
You got the best of me, baby (baby)
Baby, didn't I?
Here you crying on my shoulder
Beg and hold me 'til it's over
When you're lonely, just remember
I gave you everything
Didn't I?

Ooh
Didn't I, didn't I?
Didn't I give you everything, baby?
Didn't I, didn't I?
Didn't I give you everything, baby?
Didn't I, didn't I
Didn't I give you everything, baby?
Didn't I, didn't I
Didn't I give you everything?
