

my mistake

Kelly Clarkson

Must've been my mistake
Swore I heard you say 'til your dyin' day
You would love me always

Imagination's actin' up again (Oh)
You ripped out pages, then you spoiled the end (Oh)
Fallin' into love, that ain't no excuse
Why'd it take a stranger to break the news?
I get no prize for bein' innocent

I'm wakin' up to cruel intentions
Feel like I'm comin' off a high
I've got the clearest recollection
Promises etched into my mind

Must've been my mistake
Swore I heard you say you'd be mine always (Always)
Oh, but it must've been my mistake
Swore I heard you say 'til your dyin' day
You would love me always

Heard my name like music from your mouth (Oh)
But just like smoke, you breathed me in and out (Oh)
How long did you play with the fantasy?
I wonder 'bout the way you'll remember me
The night our home became just a house

I'm wakin' up to cruel intentions
Feel like I'm comin' off a high
I've got the clearest recollection
Promises etched into my mind

Must've been my mistake
Swore I heard you say you'd be mine always (Always)
Oh, but it must've been my mistake
Swore I heard you say 'til your dyin' day
You would love me always

Oh
Always, oh

So why don't you come say what you wanna say?
You hold her pretty close, thought you needed space
But I won't make a scene, just call me crazy, baby

But it must've been my mistake
Swore I heard you say you'd be mine always
Oh, must've been my mistake
Swore I heard you say 'til your dyin' day
You would love me always

Always
