

Pilgrim's Reach

Kelly Joe Phelps

Iâ€™m afraid Iâ€™ve gone the wrong way, my friend
Walking away from Calorie right back in the sand.
Theyâ€™re no demons, no, they donâ€™t like me at all,
Well, theyâ€™d love to beat my heart to hell every time I fall.

Oh, why do I chose to suffer when I can live with God?
Way dark valley, all my pieces gone,
I pray to heaven, have mercy on me.

On my knees on the ground, Lord, help my faith.
My disbelief is killing me, I sure need your grace.
Iâ€™ll open up the world and let You lead me on Your way,
Break my eyes and ears open and I will hear You say.

Oh, you are my sons and daughters
And Iâ€™ll give â€™em my own home to buy you a crown
And all your heavens buried in your heart,

Turn to Jesus and come to me.

And the devil likes to hang around, waiting for the bones
That all the blind and crippled lose and they find their own.
He then come to find me and turn to evil tight,
Give our glory to the Lord and walk with Him this sight.

Oh, why do I chose to suffer when I can live with God?
Way dark valley, all my pieces gone,
Great heaven, have mercy on me.
Oh, why do I chose to suffer when I can live with God?
Way dark valley, weâ€™ll gonna be no more,
Great heaven, have mercy on me.
Great heaven, have mercy on me.
Oh, great heaven, have mercy on me.
