

Little Girl

Kelly Khumalo

Little girl
When the time
Comes for you
To be yourself
When it seems you're all alone
In the dream
Believe in life

Remember girl it's in you
Don't forget child, that your arms are like the waves of the ocean (Ocean)
Remember girl it's in your rise
You can touch it
Oh little girl
Let your dream carry you

When the horizon, Seem like a distant wish
It seems you're all alone in the dream
When the sky becomes a lineage
I'll reach, I'll reach beyond it

I'll remember it's in me
I will not forget, that my arms are like the waves of the ocean (Ocean)
I'll remember it's in my arms
I can touch it
I do believe that my dreams will carry me

No no no nie una nonono
No nie no no na nono
That my dreams will carry me
That my dreams will carry me, will carry me
That my dreams, that my dreams will carry me

Remember girl it's in you (It's in me)
Don't forget child (No, I won't forget)
That your arms are like (Yes they are)
The waves of the ocean (Ocean)

Remember girl (Yes I remember)
It's in your rise (Yes it is)
You can touch it (It is)
Oh little girl (Oh)
And your dream (Will carry you)
