

9,999,999 Tears

Kelly Willis

Ninety-nine hundred
Ninety-nine thousand
Nine hundred ninety-nine tears to go
And then I don't know if I'll be over you

The sun didn't shine this morning
It's been raining the whole day through
Suddenly without warning
You found somebody new

That's when the first tear came
Falling from my eyes
I'm beginning to feel the pain
Seeing nothing but cloudy skies

Ninety-nine hundred
Ninety-nine thousand
Nine hundred ninety-nine tears to go
And then I don't know if I'll be over you

Went out tonight with a new love
I'm far from your mind
Trying to get over you love
Could take a whole lifetime

I can't believe you could want somebody else
And no one could take my place
At least that's what I've been telling myself
As the tears fall down my face

Ninety-nine hundred
Ninety-nine thousand
Nine hundred ninety-nine tears to go
And then I don't know if I'll be over you
